Part 1: Situational Writing (14 marks)

The picture below shows a discussion between Betty and her father about an event. Study the picture carefully.

Viva Music School

10th Anniversary Celebration

Date : 7 December 2024
Time : 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Venue : Oaks Recreation Club

All current students are cordially invited to attend!

PROGRAMME

Time	Activity
10 a.m.	Form groups of four and play team games
12 p.m.	Make your own burger for lunch
1 p.m.	Create a class poster with your classmates

To register, log in to your student account to accept the personal invitation by 24 November 2024.

Look at this message, Betty! Your music school is holding an event. Since only current students are invited, you can go with someone from your guitar class.

You can help by reminding her about that. Before she registers, she must make sure that the event does not clash with a rehearsal.

I can ask Karen, but she has a busy rehearsal schedule because of an upcoming performance.

Thanks, Dad! I'll do that right away.

Your Task

Imagine you are Betty.

Write an email to Karen to persuade her to join the event.

You are to refer to the picture and information on page 1 for your email. The bullet point underlined below requires you to come up with your own information.

In your writing, include the following key information:

- the date and time the event takes place
- two group activities she will get to do
- why she must register for the event on her own
- how she can make sure that the event does not clash with a rehearsal

You may reorder the points. Remember to write in complete sentences.

Part 2: Continuous Writing (36 marks)

- 2 Write a composition of at least 150 words about a painful lesson.

The pictures are provided to help you think about this topic.

Your composition should be based on one or more of these pictures.

Consider the following points when you plan your composition:

- What was the lesson?
- How was it a painful lesson?

You may use the points in any order and include other relevant points as well.
