Look at this message, Betty! Your music school is holding an event. Since only current students are invited, you could go with someone from your guitar class. Do you have anyone in mind?

Why don't you just ask her? She might say yes. But before she registers, she must make sure that the event does not clash with any guitar rehearsals.

Yes, I do. I wanted to ask Karen, but she has been rehearsing for an upcoming performance.

Thanks, Dad! I'll do that right away.

Your Task

Imagine you are Betty.

Write an email to Karen to invite her to take part in the event with you.

You are to refer to the picture and information on page 1 for your email. The bullet point underlined below requires you to come up with your own information.

In your writing, include the following key information:

- the date and time of the event
- why you have decided to invite her for the event
- two group activities she will get to do at the event
- how she can register for the event
- how she can make sure that the event does not clash with a rehearsal

You may reorder the points. Remember to write in complete sentences.

Part 2: Continuous Writing (36 marks)

- 2 Write a composition of at least 150 words about an achievement.

The pictures are provided to help you think about this topic.

Your composition should be based on one or more of these pictures.

Consider the following points when you plan your composition:

- What was the achievement?
- Why was it an achievement?

You may use the points in any order and include other relevant points as well.
