Dad, I'm still unsure which secondary school to choose, so I thought of attending this open house.

I know Ben, my classmate, and I are facing the same dilemma. I'll ask him to attend the event with me!

That's a good idea, Danny. It's useful to hear the students talk about their personal experiences in the school.

Your Task

Imagine you are Danny.

Write an email to Ben to persuade him to attend the event with you.

You are to refer to the picture and information on page 2 for your email.

In your email, include the following key information:

- the date and time of the event
- why you are approaching him to attend the event with you
- two things you can do there to find out about the school's programmes
- why there is a need to register early for the guided school tour

You may reorder the points. Remember to write in complete sentences.

Part 2: Continuous Writing (40 marks)

- 2 Write a composition of at least 150 words about making a difference.

The pictures are provided to help you think about this topic.

Your composition should be based on one or more of these pictures.

Consider the following points when you plan your composition:

- What happened that caused the character(s) to want to make a difference?
- What happened in the end?

You may use the points in any order and include other relevant points as well.
